Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Civic and National Power Team weeks have a long history in our constitutional republic, dating back to 1976; and,

Whereas, The Power Team has performed the world's greatest exhibitions of power, strength, speed, inspiration, and motivation in every state and in over 40 countries; and,

Whereas, The Power Team has several world record holders, former National Football League football players, and professional athletes; and,

Whereas, The Power Team has been recognized by over 100 governors, senators, and congressmen for their positive contribution to the lives of America's families; and,

Whereas, The Power Team is the "original" strength team, utilizing visually explosive feats of strength to communicate positive messages to audiences in churches, civic centers, stadiums, and coliseums throughout the world; and,

Whereas, The Power Team has performed in over 30,000 school assemblies over the past 30 years, and is ranked as one of the top school assemblies in the nation; and,

Whereas, Believing that inspiration and motivation equals academic and personal achievement, the Power Team tackle the tough issues of drugs, alcohol, violence, abstinence, peer pressure, and suicide; and,

Whereas, The Power Team, as incredible drug free athletes, will be in 13-15 of our South Dakota schools bringing a positive message of inspiration and motivation; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to give these men and women the opportunity to positively affect South Dakotans in this positive manner:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 21, 2012, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
